IN MASK FOR THANKSGIVING

Lovers of dancing at Manhattan and Round Mountain were not deterred by the blizzard from turning out in numbers Thanksgiving eve to attend the masked ball given by the ladies of Round Mountain. The music was furnished by talent from both camps and was enjoyed so well that the dancers insisted on keeping up the fun until 4:30 Thursday morning. The feature of the evening was the appearance of Lillian McGowan, formerly of Senora, Calif., representing the Tonopah Daily Bonanza and Miss Frances Galligan as the

SOME FIGURES ON AVERAGES

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The following figures have been compiled from the official National league batting averages:

The leading batsman for 1919 is Edd. J. Roush of Cincinnati with .351, with Hornsby of St. Louis a close second, only three points separating the two players.

Batsman making five base hits in five times at bat during the season were Kauff, New York, June 15; Konechky, Brooklyn, June 29; Grif fith, Brooklyn, June 24; Daubert, Cincinnati, July 23; Hornsby, St. Louis, July 26.

The leading run-scorer is George Burns, New York, with eighty-six, who also had the season's record in stolen bases, forty.

Daubert of Cincinnati had most sacrifice hits, thirty-nine.

The greatest number of single safe hits was 131. Hornsby, St. Louis; Stock, St. Louis; Holke, Boston, each had the same.

Young, New York, had most two-base hits, thirty-one.

Myers, Brooklyn, and Southworth, Pittsburgh, tied for three-base hits, having fourteen each.

Cravath, Philadelphia, made twelve home runs; he also leads all in extra bases made on long hits, with a total of sixty-four—duplicated his work of 1918.

Consecutive hitting during the season was a run of eighteen by Southworth, Pittsburgh, started May 26, closed June 1.

Olson, Brooklyn, has the most "times at bat," 590.

New York leads in the club batting with percentage of .269.

New York made most runs, 805.

Brooklyn made most times at bat, 4,844.

Brooklyn made most hits, 1,272.

New York made most single hits, 946.

Philadelphia most two base hits, 208.

Cincinnati most three base hits, 84.

Philadelphia most home runs, 42.

Cincinnati leads in sacrifice hits, 199.

Pittsburgh had most stolen bases, 196.

Left on bases' record shows that Boston had the largest number of players left on bases during the season, having 980.

The largest number of players left on bases in a single game of nine innings was made by Boston on August 26 with the Philadelphia club.

Boston having fifteen; Cincinnati on May 20, with New York, had fourteen.

Based solely on the season's averages and all players playing in one hundred or more games (pitchers, twenty games), the strongest batting club would consist of A. W. Cooper, Pittsburgh, pitcher; William L. Killifer, Chicago, Catcher; E. J. Konechky, Brooklyn, first base; Rogers Hornsby, St. Louis, second base; Henry Groh, Cincinnati, third base; Charles L. Herzog, Chicago-Boston, shortstop; Edd. J. Roush, Cincinnati, Ross Young, New York, H. H. Myers, Brooklyn, outfielders.

AMUSEMENTS

FRANK KEENAN AT THE BUTLER TODAY.

Frank Keenan, who has been aptly described as "America's greatest character actor," is now an independent producer of motion picture features, having decided that this was the only way in which he could give free rein to his artistic instincts. For "The Master Man," first of the "Keenan Specials" to emanate from the Brunton studios at Los Angeles, Mr. Keenan has selected an all-star combination. It is a story of political life, of the "powers behind the throne, of grafters, ward-healers, bosses, and all the other unhealthy concomitants inseparable from corrupt politics. Mr. Keenan plays the part of the state attorney-general, a master hand at political scheming, whose entire graft-built edifice tumbles to the ground when there enters into his life the one influence which can soften and bend that will of iron—a woman. The action of this play is frequently surrounded with deep mystery, as it is a tale of political intrigue of "back door politics," of a party machine which yields immense power while striking in the dark. Your attention is called to the sub-titling of this picture, which is promised to be the most effective of any yet shown in any picture. Added to the feature will be a Harold Lloyd comedy, entitled "Billy Blazes." Tomorrow, Constance Talmadge, in "Sauce for the Goose," a comedy-drama that just fills the bill.

Massive horns, forty-six inches long and fifteen inches around the base, and in the shape of a lyre, are the peculiar possessions of the gals ox, or sunga, of East Africa, and Abyssinia.

The snow is heavy in the mountains along the Truckee water shed and old timers declare that the early winter snows are what count and furnish the water for late irrigation the following summer.

About seven inches of snow fell in Reno. At 1 o'clock Tuesday eight inches of snow was on the ground but measurements taken by the weather bureau showed that since Monday morning twelve and one-half inches had fallen.

The storm area was central yesterday over San Francisco, having been forced south by the high area over South Dakota and, which has extended from Colfax on the west side of the Sierra Nevada mountains to the Utah line and covering the entire northern part of Nevada, a storm is bringing snow to the mountains and valleys in great quantities and effectively breaking a dry spell that extended from the summer, with the exception of one or two small storms.

The value of the snow to Nevada can not be estimated in dollars and cents but ranchers, stockmen, sheepmen and others declare that it is worth thousands of dollars to the state.

The record of the Turkish war indebtedness is unique. The empire met war costs by requisitions and by printing in Germany 155,000,000 Turkish paper pounds, or normally about $680,000,000, but this, according to the experts, cannot be considered a government liability.

It is not a financial burden as it bears no interest, and also the proper administrative body of the peace conference can at will have it cancelled.

Turkey's paper money, it is brought a very cold wave to the northwest.

The temperature in Reno was 29 degrees yesterday morning and consequently the snow was very moist and settled rapidly. It snowed all night and Tuesday morning and predictions were for more snow with a possibility of the cold wave sweeping over the state.

FIRST SOAKING STORM IN TWO YEARS ARRIVES

Tonopah was virtually cut off from the world this morning owing to storm conditions which put every telephone wire over the Sierras out of commission. The long distance telephone was working and a few quotations were received to give the brokers and traders an idea of the market. The Western Union did not receive the opening until after the close of the market. The east was also affected to the extent of a suspension of business, the company did not have time to re-route its business by indirect circuits. The Associated Press report, which usually starts at 10 a. m. did not get through until 1:30, when an intermittent service was furnished.

Extending from Colfax on the west side of the Sierra Nevada mountains to the Utah line and covering the entire northern part of Nevada, a storm is bringing snow to the mountains and valleys in great quantities and effectively breaking a dry spell that extended from the summer, with the exception of one or two small storms.
